Ghana Wins at Gourmand Awards!

For the first time a Ghana cookbook has won an award at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards. On April 13 in London, the book "Aromas from Ghana" by Cynthia Agbozo won a "Special Award of the Jury".

The book is a bridge to the rest of the world for the rich culinary culture of Ghana. It is written by Cynthia Agbozo, who was born in Great Britain, raised in Ghana, and now lives in Vancouver.

The book is exhibited at the London Book Fair April 14-16 on the Gourmand/LBF Cookbook Corner Stand U800 with all finalists of the awards competition. Books from 107 countries were received this year. The book will be exhibited again at the Frankfurt Book Fair in October.
